Description:
This recertification seminar will help participants focus on the strategic function of HR. It aligns with several functional areas in the SHRM BoCK: Business and HR Strategy, Structure of the HR Function and Employment Law and Registration.

Seminar Objectives: At the conclusion of the course, participants will be better able to:

- Explain HR Strategic Management and how it is related to organizational goals
- Understand the legal, political, cultural and economic factors affecting HR management efforts
- Understand and participate in the HR planning process
- Identify HR metrics and their applicability to strategy

Target Audience: HR generalists, employee relations specialists, internal HR consultants, middle and senior line managers.

Learning Methods: Lecturette, class discussion.

Seminar Schedule: 1:00pm-5:00 pm

Fees: $295. SHRM Member Pricing: $245.00

PDC’s: This course is approved for 4 SHRM PDC Recertification Credits

Instructor: Raymond T. LaManna, SHRM-SCP

For registration information, visit our website: http://www.mville.edu/business/shrmeducation

Or Contact Nancy Urell at nancy.urell@mville.edu