MASTER OF SCIENCE IN INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT

We are connected globally, financially, and culturally. At Manhattanville, you will be too.
Our MS program in International Management lets you focus on your specific business area of interest from the very first day - because that is what is necessary to succeed in today's ever-changing world.

Select from four business concentrations to specialize your skills in the discipline that most fascinates you and matches your career goals:

- Business Leadership
- Finance
- Human Resource Management and Organizational Effectiveness
- Marketing Communication Management

The core curriculum focuses on the global aspects of competition, communication, finance, marketing, international law, and managing corporate processes. You will obtain the skills you need to compete on the global stage. Then, choose the electives that align with your aspirational career goals. Courses can also be matriculated to other programs.

You will learn from leading practitioners with international expertise who use real-world examples and compelling case studies that you can apply. It is hands on. The comprehensive knowledge you will gain is an invaluable experience that will serve you now and throughout your career.
