NEW – INFORMATION DELIVERY SYSTEM
Interlibrary Loan Streamlined

The Library recently launched a new delivery system for books and periodical articles ordered through Interlibrary loan. The Library joined a New York State academic library consortium that provides requested books and periodical articles in a much more timely and efficient manner. The new Interlibrary loan program is called ILLIAD. To begin using ILLIAD, go to the Library Home page – http://www.mville.edu/library - then, click on “Services”, then, click on “Illiad”. First time users must register to create a personal account. Requests for books and articles are made through Illiad. When a book is received, you will receive an email saying the book is at the Circulation Desk. When a journal article is received, you will receive an email saying that the article is ready for electronic access in your Illiad account.

APRIL IS POETRY MONTH

CELEBRATING POETRY

Reception and Reading in honor of the recently published poetry books – Shiva Dancing by Van Hartmann, associate professor in the English Department, and Talking Underwater by Sally Bliumis-Dunn, instructor of Modern Poetry and Creative Writing.

Wednesday, April 2nd at 7:00 p.m. in the Current Periodical Room of the Library

Manhattanville alumna Alice Quinn recently donated a major collection of poetry and literature books to the Library. Quinn is the Executive Director of the Poetry Society of America and also teaches in Columbia University’s School of the Arts. She recently stepped down as poetry editor at The New Yorker magazine, a position she held for 20 years. She is currently editing a collection of Elizabeth Bishop's notebooks and journals.

Quinn’s donation, which focuses on 20th-century poetry, includes many volumes by well-known American poets including Donald Hall, Maxine Kumin, Lawrence Ferlinghetti, Denise Levertov, and W.S. Merwin. Anthologies provide a rich selection of poetry from Spain, Turkey, Ireland, Russia, and Vietnam. Foreign writers, including Pablo Neruda, Ingeborg Bachmann, Paul Celan, Wislawa Szymborska, and Giuseppe Ungaretti are also represented. To see a complete list of books in the donation, search in CastleCat with the keywords “Alice” and “Quinn.”

APRIL EXHIBIT: FACES of LIBERTY – the Bill of Rights, civil liberties, and New Yorkers. Sponsored by the New York Civil Liberties Union

This is a year of celebration for Viridian Artists Gallery. It is their 40th year of being one of the foremost artist-owned and professionally operated galleries in New York. The artists with Viridian are not only from all over the U.S. but are from all around the globe with partners in France, Japan, and Korea.

Viridian Artists began in the Soho area of New York City and later moved to 57th Street where they stayed for 25 years. Currently, the gallery is located in the art hub of Manhattan on West 25th Street in Chelsea. They pride themselves on the quality, diversity, and level of excellence of the artists they represent.

The March 2008 exhibit is an outstanding example of the quality of work from the Viridian Artists. It is visually and intellectually stimulating – from contemporary to traditional – a visual journey to make you ponder.

Exhibiting artists are Carol Benisatto, Jack Bolen, Rene Borkow, Bernice Gaegenburg, Wally Gilbert, Laura Guese, Jain Hutzel, Kat King, Stacey Newman, Bruce Rosen, Barbara K Schwartz, Susan Sills, Phyllis Smith, Bob Tomlinson, Judith Tunnino, and Meredith Turshen.
