Employee, Trustee, Third Party Rights before the Title IX Hearing Panel

 A Both the Complainant and the Respondent may choose to participate in a manner that does not require their presence in the same room as the other party. B Both the Complainant and the Respondent are entitled to have one Support Person present. This Support Person may be an attorney. During the Hearing, the Support Person may confer only with the party she/he is advising and is not permitted to speak to the Hearing Panel members or to any other Hearing participant before, during, or after the Hearing. C Both the Complainant and the Respondent have the right to testify on their own behalf. Neither the Complainant nor the Respondent is required to testify or be present at the Hearing. D Both the Complainant and the Respondent may hear and question adverse witnesses. Both the Complainant and the Respondent may choose to direct their questions through the Chair. E Both the Complainant and the Respondent may rebut unfavorable inferences. F Both the Complainant and the Respondent may provide an Impact Statement. G Both the Complainant and the Respondent may provide an Impact Statement. H Records shall be maintained in the Title IX Coordinator's Office in accordance with the Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy. I Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of the Sexual Misconduct Policy on limited grounds to the Title IX Appeal Officer.
 B Both the Complainant and the Respondent are entitled to have one Support Person present. This Support Person may be an attorney. During the Hearing, the Support Person may confer only with the party she/he is advising and is not permitted to speak to the Hearing Panel members or to any other Hearing participant before, during, or after the Hearing. C Both the Complainant and the Respondent have the right to testify on their own behalf. Neither the Complainant nor the Respondent is required to testify or be present at the Hearing. D Both the Complainant and the Respondent may hear and question adverse witnesses. Both the Complainant and the Respondent may choose to direct their questions through the Chair. E Both the Complainant and the Respondent may rebut unfavorable inferences. F Both the Complainant and the Respondent may provide an Impact Statement. G Both the Complainant and the Respondent shall receive concurrent notification of any sanctions imposed by the Title IX Hearing Panel. H Records shall be maintained in the Title IX Coordinator's Office in accordance with the Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy. I Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; the Grievance Procedures, Section IX, in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of 	Α	Both the Complainant and the Respondent may choose to participate in a manner that present. This Support Person may be an attorney. During the Hearing, the Support Person may confer only with the party she/he is advising and is not permitted to speak to the Hearing Panel members or to any other Hearing participant before, during, or after the Hearing. C Both the Complainant and the Respondent have the right to testify on their own behalf. Neither the Complainant nor the Respondent is required to testify or be present at the Hearing. D Both the Complainant and the Respondent may hear and question adverse witnesses. Both the Complainant and the Respondent may choose to direct their questions through the Chair. E Both the Complainant and the Respondent may rebut unfavorable inferences. F Both the Complainant and the Respondent may provide an Impact Statement. G Both the Complainant and the Respondent shall receive concurrent notification of any sanctions imposed by the Title IX Hearing Panel. H Records shall be maintained in the Title IX Coordinator's Office in accordance with the Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy. I Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of		does not require their presence in the same room as the other party.
Person may confer only with the party she/he is advising and is not permitted to speak to the Hearing Panel members or to any other Hearing participant before, during, or after the Hearing. C Both the Complainant and the Respondent have the right to testify on their own behalf. Neither the Complainant nor the Respondent is required to testify or be present at the Hearing. D Both the Complainant and the Respondent may hear and question adverse witnesses. Both the Complainant and the Respondent may choose to direct their questions through the Chair. E Both the Complainant and the Respondent may rebut unfavorable inferences. F Both the Complainant and the Respondent may provide an Impact Statement. G Both the Complainant and the Respondent shall receive concurrent notification of any sanctions imposed by the Title IX Hearing Panel. H Records shall be maintained in the Title IX Coordinator's Office in accordance with the Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy. I Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; the Grievance Procedures, Section IX, in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of	В	Both the Complainant and the Respondent are entitled to have one Support Person speak to the Hearing Panel members or to any other Hearing participant before, during, or after the Hearing. C Both the Complainant and the Respondent have the right to testify on their own behalf. Neither the Complainant nor the Respondent is required to testify or be present at the Hearing. D Both the Complainant and the Respondent may hear and question adverse witnesses. Both the Complainant and the Respondent may choose to direct their questions through the Chair. E Both the Complainant and the Respondent may rebut unfavorable inferences. F Both the Complainant and the Respondent may provide an Impact Statement. G Both the Complainant and the Respondent shall receive concurrent notification of any sanctions imposed by the Title IX Hearing Panel. H Records shall be maintained in the Title IX Coordinator's Office in accordance with the Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy. I Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; the Grievance Procedures, Section IX, in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of		present. This Support Person may be an attorney. During the Hearing, the Support during, or after the Hearing. C Both the Complainant and the Respondent have the right to testify on their own behalf. Neither the Complainant nor the Respondent is required to testify or be present at the Hearing. D Both the Complainant and the Respondent may hear and question adverse witnesses. Both the Complainant and the Respondent may choose to direct their questions through the Chair. E Both the Complainant and the Respondent may rebut unfavorable inferences. F Both the Complainant and the Respondent may provide an Impact Statement. G Both the Complainant and the Respondent shall receive concurrent notification of any sanctions imposed by the Title IX Hearing Panel. H Records shall be maintained in the Title IX Coordinator's Office in accordance with the Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy. I Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of		Person may confer only with the party she/he is advising and is not permitted to
 C Both the Complainant and the Respondent have the right to testify on their own behalf. Neither the Complainant nor the Respondent is required to testify or be present at the Hearing. D Both the Complainant and the Respondent may hear and question adverse witnesses. Both the Complainant and the Respondent may choose to direct their questions through the Chair. E Both the Complainant and the Respondent may rebut unfavorable inferences. F Both the Complainant and the Respondent may provide an Impact Statement. G Both the Complainant and the Respondent shall receive concurrent notification of any sanctions imposed by the Title IX Hearing Panel. H Records shall be maintained in the Title IX Coordinator's Office in accordance with the Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy. I Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of 		speak to the Hearing Panel members or to any other Hearing participant before, behalf. Neither the Complainant nor the Respondent is required to testify or be present at the Hearing. D Both the Complainant and the Respondent may hear and question adverse witnesses. Both the Complainant and the Respondent may choose to direct their questions through the Chair. E Both the Complainant and the Respondent may rebut unfavorable inferences. F Both the Complainant and the Respondent may provide an Impact Statement. G Both the Complainant and the Respondent shall receive concurrent notification of any sanctions imposed by the Title IX Hearing Panel. H Records shall be maintained in the Title IX Coordinator's Office in accordance with the Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy. I Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of		during, or after the Hearing.
present at the Hearing. D Both the Complainant and the Respondent may hear and question adverse witnesses. Both the Complainant and the Respondent may choose to direct their questions through the Chair. E Both the Complainant and the Respondent may rebut unfavorable inferences. F Both the Complainant and the Respondent may provide an Impact Statement. G Both the Complainant and the Respondent shall receive concurrent notification of any sanctions imposed by the Title IX Hearing Panel. H Records shall be maintained in the Title IX Coordinator's Office in accordance with the Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy. I Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of	С	Both the Complainant and the Respondent have the right to testify on their own
 Both the Complainant and the Respondent may hear and question adverse witnesses. Both the Complainant and the Respondent may choose to direct their questions through the Chair. Both the Complainant and the Respondent may rebut unfavorable inferences. Both the Complainant and the Respondent may provide an Impact Statement. Both the Complainant and the Respondent shall receive concurrent notification of any sanctions imposed by the Title IX Hearing Panel. Records shall be maintained in the Title IX Coordinator's Office in accordance with the Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy. Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of 		behalf. Neither the Complainant nor the Respondent is required to testify or be
Both the Complainant and the Respondent may choose to direct their questions through the Chair. Both the Complainant and the Respondent may rebut unfavorable inferences. Both the Complainant and the Respondent may provide an Impact Statement. Both the Complainant and the Respondent shall receive concurrent notification of any sanctions imposed by the Title IX Hearing Panel. Records shall be maintained in the Title IX Coordinator's Office in accordance with the Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy. Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; the Grievance Procedures, Section IX, in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of		present at the Hearing. through the Chair. E Both the Complainant and the Respondent may rebut unfavorable inferences. F Both the Complainant and the Respondent may provide an Impact Statement. G Both the Complainant and the Respondent shall receive concurrent notification of any sanctions imposed by the Title IX Hearing Panel. H Records shall be maintained in the Title IX Coordinator's Office in accordance with the Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy. I Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; the Grievance Procedures, Section IX, in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of	D	Both the Complainant and the Respondent may hear and question adverse witnesses.
 Both the Complainant and the Respondent may rebut unfavorable inferences. Both the Complainant and the Respondent may provide an Impact Statement. Both the Complainant and the Respondent shall receive concurrent notification of any sanctions imposed by the Title IX Hearing Panel. Records shall be maintained in the Title IX Coordinator's Office in accordance with the Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy. Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; the Grievance Procedures, Section IX, in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of 		Both the Complainant and the Respondent may choose to direct their questions
 F Both the Complainant and the Respondent may provide an Impact Statement. G Both the Complainant and the Respondent shall receive concurrent notification of any sanctions imposed by the Title IX Hearing Panel. H Records shall be maintained in the Title IX Coordinator's Office in accordance with the Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy. I Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; the Grievance Procedures, Section IX, in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of 		through the Chair.
Both the Complainant and the Respondent shall receive concurrent notification of any sanctions imposed by the Title IX Hearing Panel. H Records shall be maintained in the Title IX Coordinator's Office in accordance with the Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy. Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; the Grievance Procedures, Section IX, in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of	E	Both the Complainant and the Respondent may rebut unfavorable inferences.
Records shall be maintained in the Title IX Coordinator's Office in accordance with the Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy. Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; the Grievance Procedures, Section IX, in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of	F	Both the Complainant and the Respondent may provide an Impact Statement.
H Records shall be maintained in the Title IX Coordinator's Office in accordance with the Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy. Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; the Grievance Procedures, Section IX, in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of	G	Both the Complainant and the Respondent shall receive concurrent notification of any Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy. Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; the Grievance Procedures, Section IX, in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of		sanctions imposed by the Title IX Hearing Panel.
Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; the Grievance Procedures, Section IX, in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of	Н	Records shall be maintained in the Title IX Coordinator's Office in accordance with the Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; the Grievance Procedures, Section IX, in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of		Manhattanville College Record Retention Policy.
Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; the Grievance Procedures, Section IX, in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of	ı	Reports involving Staff, Faculty, as well as any other members of the College
Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; the Grievance Procedures, Section IX, in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of		Community will follow a due process procedure specific to violations of the Sexual
Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty Handbook; the Grievance Procedures, Section IX, in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of		Misconduct Policy, which fall outside the jurisdiction of the Problem Resolution
Handbook; the Grievance Procedures, Section IX, in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of		Procedures in the College Employee Handbook; the Code for Manhattanville and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws. Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of		Community, Section VII including applicable procedures in the College Faculty
J Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of		Handbook; the Grievance Procedures, Section IX, in the College Faculty Handbook; and II.F.ii (a) and (b), Review Committee in the College Faculty By-Laws.
the Sexual Misconduct Policy on limited grounds to the Title IX Appeal Officer.	J	Either party may appeal the sanctions imposed by the Hearing Panel for violation of
, 3		the Sexual Misconduct Policy on limited grounds to the Title IX Appeal Officer.

FAILURE TO APPEAR FOR THE HEARING

In the event you should fail to appear before the Title IX Hearing Panel on the date specified, the Hearing will be held in your absence.
Signature	Date

I have read and understand all of the above statements.